

Partner with us to power your business:

The AEG Power Solutions 2010 Partner Program

Mayflex is proud to now be supplying the AEG Power Solutions range of UPS products and is working with AEG to give you the chance to become a partner.

Why partner with AEG?

When you join the Power Partner Program you will be putting all this Power Solutions' strength behind your business:

- Complete range of world-class AC and DC power supply products
- Range includes Protect Home and Protect A, B and C UPS for data centres and IT networks
- Extensive expertise across data, IT, industrial, power generation, transport, oil, gas and solar sectors
 - Global reach with worldwide Service Centre network
 - Excellent support, margins and profit opportunities

To become an AEG partner, you must attend one of our short training sessions.
